BILL BRETT FOR THE BOSTON GLOBE

She's got style

For a fashion designer, Jackie Rogers (right) is refreshingly unpretentious. "I'm glad this is how it turned out," she says of her illustrious life, "but it's not like I followed a plan." In Boston for a trunk show at the Back Bay manse of actress Christy Scott Cashman, Rogers told us yesterday she strives to make her creations comfortable and not too complex. "I don't do darts and I don't do a lot of construction," said the Brookline native, who once modeled for Coco Chanel and Bill Blass. Standing with her fall collection in the foyer of Cashman's crib, Rogers looked satisfied and, of course, stylish.
